

PRAYER TO ST.BENEDICT
AGAINST WITCHCRAFT, ENVY, AND EVIL TONGGUES

O glorious St. Benedict! You are a zealous, exemplary abbot and my great patron. Also, you are a kind intercessor for all who come to you with their prayers.

Please hear me, my mighty saint. I am in desperate need of your help. I pray that you will grant me divine help so that my severe difficulties can be resolved and that all good might come to me.

Intercede before me before the Lord to ease my sufferings, and remove any serious problems that are affecting my peace.

Through the powerful intercessions of the Holy Cross I can remove, condemn, and reject all evil, hatred, and concealment directed at me, my loved family, or my dear friends.

Do not allow magic to affect me.

You must ensure that your evils do not affect me. I will see myself as free from enemies, traitors, and treacherous people.

O noble protector, safe haven, I know I can overcome this situation with you. Help me get what I want, so my life is peaceful and happy.

(Say what it is you would like to receive through the mediation of St. Benedict.)

With all my confidence, and in the assurance that you love us, I beseech You, saints filled with fervor, and who have never put anything before Christ since you found Him in prayer. Grant me your most effective intercession and ask Heaven to bless me.

St. Benedict, the powerful patron, I beseech you with great fervour that I receive my faith immediately; I also ask for your help in achieving the perfection of Christian life.

Also, I ask for your help in reaching perfection in my Christian walk so that I can be faithful to the Gospel, love my Lord and have charity.

Our Father in Heaven, Help us to fight the devil, the world, and the flesh. Take away all evil influences, temptations, power of evil, and dangers to our spirit as well as our body.

We can trust in God's love, the power of Christ, our Savior, and the help of the Holy Spirit. Amen. +

You should pray the Our Father, Ave Maria, and Glory Be three to three times with great devotion and trust in St. Benedict. If the petition is extremely urgent and difficult, you can pray and make supplications for up to nine days.

Saint Benedict Abbot (480-547). He is considered the founder of the West's monastic life. He was the founder of the Benedictine order.

He was a master of charity and consolation for weak people. He is invoked to protect against all evil, enemies and harm. Black magic, evil spells and witchcraft, as well as other harmful spells. .... Against lies, perjury and slander. He is the patron saint of Europe.

His intercession has been responsible for many miracles and signs. His intercession has been called "father of monks" or "co-worker with Christ" for the salvation of souls.

Feast of Saint Benedict: March 21, Commemorates Saint Benedict's death. On this day, the Church offers full indulgence to all who go to confession and communion at a church, preferable Benedictine, and pray for the salvation and intentions of the Pope.

The Solemnity of St. Benedict July 11: This is the same day as the previous one and is known as the "Day of the Nativity In Paradise." Because March falls during Lent, July 11 is a reserved date for celebrating the feast with joy and solemnity.
